

Care of the Artist Within: Seeking Authenticity & Refuge

4 week course: Wednesdays: June 7, 14, 21, & 28
6:00 — 9:00 pm

This workshop is designed to provide participants an opportunity to shed unhelpful rules and/or aesthetics about what make a piece of artwork a credible and/or valid form of expression. This four week course is ideal for both artists and non-artists alike, who are looking for a space to fully engage in the creative process, free from the pressures of conventional judgment and/or competition. You will be invited to playfully seek out new forms of meaningful expression and inspiration through a series of exercises utilizing guided meditation, movement, journaling, storytelling, and visual art making. Basic art materials will be provided.

Workshop Goals:

- Discover new ways to use art making to relax and find joy in life.
- Gain confidence in your creative potential.
- Learn to play again!
- Give voice to your artistic spirit.
- Break free of creative blocks.
- Develop habits to promote artistic expression.
- Reconnect with the artistic part of who you are.
- Be inspired!
