Explore Artistically at the CAC! In this 4-week workshop focus on art making explorations based on life, culture, society, and one's character. Each session will cover a different topic on which you will have time to develop your own hopefully inspired work of art.

Registration fee includes the cost of art materials; which will be provided during class. Home assignments will be given by the artist, for practice.

Instructor, Cornelia Dohse-Peck: Originally from (West) Germany, Cornelia moved to Buffalo in 1993, and enrolled in the University's Fine Arts Program-where she won the prestigious Rumsey Award in Painting during her junior year and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Painting and Art History in 1996. She graduated with honors cum laude.

Dohse-Peck has pursued a career as a visual artist since. She has exhibited mixed media work on a national and international level, has had many solo exhibitions and won awards. Many of her studio art pieces give social or political commentary. Dohse-Peck has also made a name for herself in Public Art. Some of her prominent themes are diversity and linking urban inhabitants to their surroundings and to specific places of meaning.
