

We need your support!

As a 501 c3 non-profit organization, members play a crucial role in our organization's past, present and future. Your membership dollars are tax-deductible, and help fulfill our mission of bringing multi-cultural programming to the Carnegie Art Center.

In 2016 the Carnegie Art Center exhibitions ranged in subject matter, style, and medium, showcasing the local students, emerging and established artists and art organizations. Educational programming covered classes for children, teens, and adults. The events varied from our annual Students Spotlight and Family Art Night to Artists' Talks, Summer NT Art Walk, Poetry Reading, Publication for Visual & Literary Artists Panel Discussion, Appalachian Broommaking, and eight weeks of live music.

Highlights for 2017 include:

- Spring live music series
- Summer cartoon exhibition
- Members' Exhibition
- Song writing workshops for teenagers
- Continuous children's programming
